TAKE OUT LICENSE OR GOOD BYE, DOG.

In a statement issued to the general public, and by means of placards posted at conspicuous places throughout the city and county, Sheriff M. Peale Collier warns dog owners that they must secure license and tags for their canines, or have the animals destroyed. Failure to do so will subject the offender to arrest and a fine. The duty of killing dogs does not fall upon the sheriff until the owner or harbinger of the dog is convicted.

RUMMAGE SALE.

The Ann Hazeltine Mission Circle of the Baptist church will hold a rummage sale and a sale of edibles today and tomorrow, Friday and Saturday, January 20 and 21, at Mrs. Cornie Baird's millinery store. Your patronage will be appreciated.

GROCER IS ASSAULTED.

Thomas Fudold, who conducts a grocery business at Cane Ridge, this county, was called from his bed at a late hour Tuesday night by several men in an auto, who said they wanted to purchase a supply of gasoline for the machine.

While Mr. Fudold was drawing the fluid for the machine one of the men struck him in the back of the head with a large gasoline measure. Fudold grappled with his assailant, at the same time calling lustily for help. The men became alarmed, and jumping into their machine, drove away at a fast clip. During the scuffle Mr. Fudold grasped the hat belonging to one of the men, and through this clue one arrest was made. Officials of the Sheriff's office are following up other clues. The man placed under arrest claims he will be able to prove his innocence.

BASKET BALL GAMES

Chiefly through the brilliant playing of Adams, the Millersburg Military Institute basketball team was able to defeat the Versailles team by a score of 31 to 19, in the game played Tuesday night on the latter's floor. Adams counted twenty-two points for the M. M. I. team and excelled in defensive play.

Paris High School and Dayton, Ky., High School boys and girls basketball teams will play a game tonight at seven o'clock, on the Y. M. C. A. floor. The game will be preceded as a preliminary by a game between the P. H. S. Midgels team and the Lexington High School Midgels. The three games will furnish enough sport and amusement to satisfy the most ardent basketball "fan."

PARIS RECORD IN PERFECT PACKAGE CAMPAIGN.

The local office of the American Express Company made in the "Perfect Package Campaign," which was held during the recent holidays, with a view to educating the shipping public to greater care in preparing their packages for shipment.

The report for the Paris office, as audited by a committee from the American Railway Express Association, and the American Railway Express Company was as follows: Number of freight shipments, 8,162; number of exceptions, 41; number of express shipments, 5,861; number of exceptions, 94; Total number of shipments, 14,023; total number of exceptions, 135; Per cent., 99.04. Paris was classed in "Group D" embracing towns having a population of between 5,000 and 10,000.

These reports showed the number of shipments forwarded by freight and express, the number of errors or defects discovered in bills of lading, express receipts, marking, packing and packages which were corrected at the point of shipment.

MATRIMONIAL

A Record of Dan Cupid's Doings As The Days Go By

LETTON-ENDICOTT.

The marriage of Miss Leona L. Letton, and Mr. Roy Endicott, both of Millersburg, was solemnized Tuesday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, in Cynthiana. The young people left Millersburg, keeping their destination a secret, and went to Cynthiana, where the ceremony was performed. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Endicott left on the L. & N. for Cincinnati, where they will spend part of their honeymoon. On their return they will reside in Millersburg, where the bridegroom has a responsible position in the C. W. Corrington store.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Jennie Letton, and one of the most accomplished young women of the county. Until the first of the year she was connected with the C. W. Corrington store. Both the bride and bridegroom were prominent in social circles, and have a large circle of friends who are extending the richest wishes.

LOOMIS-BELL.

A wedding which was solemnized in Lexington, on December 20, which has just been made public, had as one of the principals, a former resident of Paris, a popular young woman, in the person of Miss Ella Loomis who was for many years operator in the office of the Cumberland Telephone Co., in this city. Miss Loomis was married on that date to Mr. John L. Bell, a prominent young business man of Cynthiana, the ceremony being performed by Rev. B. C. Horton, at his residence, 172 Woodland Avenue.

The bride, since leaving Paris, has been a resident of Cynthiana, where she has held the position of book-keeper and stenographer for the Cynthiana Grocery Co. She is a fine business woman who has proved her ability and business qualifications to be of the highest order. Added to this is a charming personality which has made her hundreds of friends here and elsewhere. Mr. Bell is at the head of the Cynthiana Tire Co., and has made a splendid success of the business.

Friends in Paris are joining a host of others in congratulations and good wishes to these popular young people, who start life under the most auspicious circumstances. May good luck and long life be their portion.
